NCSS Awards for Outstanding Teachers and Program Excellence

NCSS announces a call for nominations for three major awards: Outstanding Elementary Teacher, Outstanding Secondary Teacher, and Social Studies Programs of Excellence. Deadline dates for the teacher awards are June 1, 1990 and a spring 1990 date set by individual state social studies councils for the Programs of Excellence. (Get in touch with your state council for the specific deadline date in your state.)

Nomination forms for teacher awards which are sponsored by Weekly Reader and Time magazine are available by writing NCSS, 3501 Newark Street, NW, Washington, DC 20016. Nominations should come from a supervisor, fellow teacher, or other individual who can provide credible evidence of a nominee's achievements. Criteria for both awards involve teaching creativity, scholarship, fostering critical thinking skills, fostering citizenship participation, and professional involvement. The completed nomination form and other required information should be returned to the Chairperson of the Outstanding Elementary or Secondary Social Studies Teacher of the Year Awards Committee, NCSS, at the address listed above.

Entrants for Social Studies Programs of Excellence may get award application packets from their state councils or from NCSS. The exemplary program is defined as a currently implemented social studies program of outstanding quality based on a curriculum framework consistent with NCSS Social Studies Curriculum Guidelines. Submit nominations to State Coordinators along with all supporting documents.

All award winners will receive national recognition at the 70th NCSS Annual meeting in Anaheim, California, November 15–18, 1990.

For additional information on these awards write NCSS at the address listed above.
